

Full Disclosure* by Dee Henderson

Discussion Questions

1. What are some characteristics you like about Ann Silver? Do you have a friend who is similar to Ann? How does that relationship work?
2. How would you describe Paul Falcon? Do you have a mental image of what he looks like? What did you like about him? What did you think about his approach to dating, marriage, and pursuing a relationship with Ann?
3. What surprised you most in the novel? Why?
4. How does the title Full Disclosure play into the overall theme of the story?
5. What do you think about Ann's private name for God? Would you consider something like that in your own relationship with God?
6. What do you think about the former Vice President Jim Gannett's cover-up? Are there some circumstances even less dramatic than this where a shading of the truth or hiding it is the right thing to do? What are some possible interpretations of the ninth commandment concerning not bearing false witness?
7. Why do you think the "lady shooter" turned in the tapes and came in? Did you notice the short scene relating to her husband when she was arrested? What do you imagine might happen with her? Is someone like that beyond God's grace and forgiveness?
8. You probably realized that Paul and Ann are complete opposites in many ways and yet similar in others. How do you think their marriage will go? What do you think about Ann's decision not to have children and Paul's response to this?
9. Which one of the story's characters is most like you? Why?